September 2021

Dear Reseller,

We hope the end of 2021 along with the mostly creative time for our industry, finds you well and to keep on growing your business. Ciao Bella is here to help with original new designs to support your sales in the coming season.

The response to our new product lines Stamping Art® and Stencil Art® has been so utterly enthusiastic to increasing the choice of designs and tools. The first step is an high quality new line of acrylic blocks, available in dimensions suitable for both our small and large stamps. We're also glad to introduce Chiaroscuro®, our new line of colors. Premium quality ink pads are just the beginning.

Another very good news for areas without local distribution: to deliver supplies at the best in every part of the world, this year we maximized the performance of the warehouse in new facilities, optimizing logistics and signing new agreements for international transports resulting in freight costs reduction for resellers getting supplies from our warehouses in Italy.

Hopefully you and your customers shall enjoy this season as well as design and inspiration of our expanding offering.

COLLECTION

Winter is the gift season. The incredible true story of love between a girl, an Alaskan Malamute and Arabian horse, beautifully illustrated by our artists, made us think the best gift takes time, cannot be bought with money but it's built slowly in the heart. Above all, it knows no boundaries of race. The gift of love.

This collection in warm powder pink, orange and ice blue palette, will take you in the gift season, inspiring to think with whom and how to expand the sharing of your gift.

The more it extends, the more will warm your heart and make you feel good, like a glass of hot apple cider in a cold winter day.

The Little Prince is one of those rare books loved by both children and adults alike. It often accompanies from childhood to adulthood, remaining one of the favorite books.

Its secret is probably that it draws portraits of grown-ups as being hopelessly narrow-minded. In contrast, children come to wisdom through willingness to explore the world around them and within themselves. A long-term life lesson.

Keeping in mind to never forget to look at the world through the eyes of a child, our artists gave the best creating original illustrations, by putting at your disposal an amazing collection of papers and polymer stamps!

Snowmen stay motionless to look at winter and have many stories to tell.

One of them says that once upon a time, the reindeer took a running leap and jumped over the Northern Lights. But he jumped too low, and the long fur of his beautiful flowing tail was singed by the rainbow fires of the aurora. To this day the reindeer has no tail to speak of. But he is too busy pulling the Sleigh to notice what is lost and certainly doesn't complain.

If you like snowmen stories, give life to the ones hidden in this collection by our illustrators.

A beautiful palette of warm winter colors and lots of country textures will help you make a great variety of projects!

COLLECTION

There are gardens in some ancient Italian mansions where the winter breeze clouds the pond, frosting the last rosebuds, obscuring summer's memory.

Stoats play in the snow between statues, goldfinches fly on frozen fountains. With musk and white cotton snow under the feet, you may pick up an icy rose and really feel that winter has come to town.

Warm red and white are the protagonists of this elegant winter collection, contemporary and at the same time classic and romantic, as always hand-drawn, to accompany you in the secret garden of a beautiful December.

“Mom, tell me a story!”. Many children at bedtime, in various parts of the world, have heard the story of the Hare and the Tortoise, the Grasshopper and the Ant, the Country Mouse and the City Mouse, and more, in response to their request.

Their author, a storyteller from ancient Greece, has given all future generations short fairy tales known in many cultures with small variations. Today as in the past, they contain valuable life lessons that we can relate to.

With this collection we present our favorite Aesop's fables, beautifully illustrated by our amazing artists, who have created a small country world full of details, a gorgeous palette of modern vintage colors, and new ideas for your layouts!

The sign of the times is usually linked to disapproving, something that is typical of the bad way things are now. On the other side, the sign of the times is marked by changes that indissolubly link past, present and future. Some call it progress.

A history as long as humankind. From alchemists in search of the philosopher's stone, to the discovery of the atom and DNA. From the study of birds, to the airplanes and interstellar flight. From the study of human anatomy, to artificial intelligence. From the classification of plants, to chemistry and medicine.

Positive or negative? You choose, building the story of your favorite pictures with this collection that combines past and present in warm and vibrant colors.

COLLECTION

Jacques Prévert is one of the most loved poets by Ciao Bella. Some of us grew up carrying a book of his poetry rolled up in back jeans pocket or purse. One of those books that you fold, crumple, underline, on which you write notes. You know that sooner or later it will start to lose pages but its content will stay with you forever, printed in your heart. Les enfants qui s'aiment, Trois allumettes, Cet amour, Barbara, Le jardin...

The watercolors and bright summer color palette we've created for this collection are dedicated to Prévert's poems, to the city as perhaps he would have told it today through the little stories of women and men who love and live their life in a city that is not just a city but a world.

COLLECTION

The delta is a place for souls seeking peace and reassurance.

Herman Hess's Siddhartha disclosed the secret: "Have you learned that secret from the river, that there is no such thing as time? That the river is everywhere at the same time, at the source and at the delta, and that the present only exists for it, not the shadow of the past nor the shadow of the future".

Soak up the atmosphere made of peaceful timeless natural landscapes, told by the incredible palette of relaxing colors we created for this collection, inspired by the Po delta, the largest Italian river, and the memories of our Art Director that spent the summer holidays over there as a child.

John Coltrane once said: "My music is the spiritual expression of what I am, my faith, my knowledge, my being. When you begin to see the possibilities of music, you desire to do something really good for people, to help humanity free itself from its hangups. I want to speak to their souls".

That's why we like Jazz. It's creativity and soul expression. And New York is its perfect match.

In this collection we have freed the metropolitan attitude of our designers, to create urban-looking images that can make you hear their jazz sound. All you have to do is relax and feel the groove.

Everyone loves flowers. But if you look beyond their beauty, down to the blades of grass, you will find out what Henry Miller described as the moment one gives close attention to any thing and even a blade of grass it becomes a mysterious, awesome, indescribably magnificent world in itself.

Fascinating microcosmos that are in our home garden and wherever flowers grow, to look for to marvel at how amazing and beautiful they are!

We were inspired by this wonder to create a classic collection but with a contemporary touch, in which we expressed our romantic side while always preserving the typical shades of our color palettes.

Modern Times

COLLECTION

Charlie Chaplin once said: "All I need to make a comedy is a park, a policeman and a pretty girl".

This industrial collection is dedicated to filmmaking of those frenetic and unforgettable times, to the comedies of The Little Tramp and Our Gang.

Those were modern times, when imagination built the magic of cinema in its early days, movie after movie, comedy after comedy. Films and hand-held cameras returned unsharp and sepia-colored images, which however did not stop the audience from crowding the halls regardless of hard wooden chairs, to widen their eyes in front of the magic of silent screen.

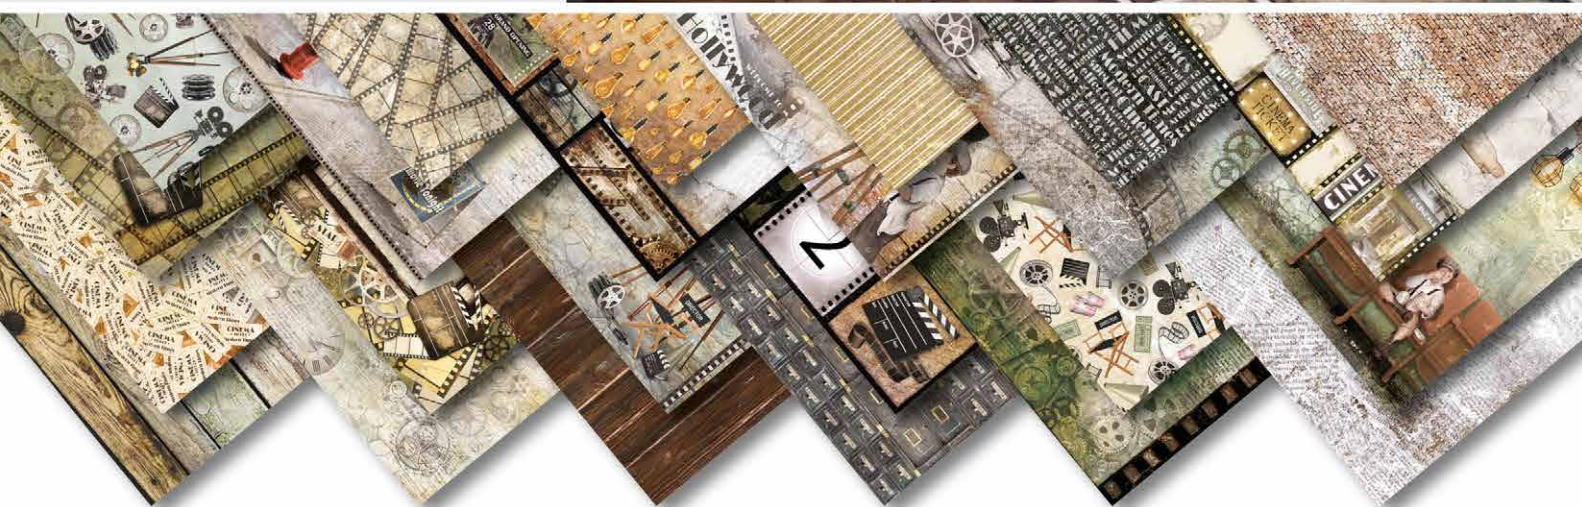

Lights, camera, action!

Who is a hipster?

Someone looking for style? A nonconformist? An indie creative? A contemporary subculture? The coolest men's outfit? A mental state? A traveler? Don't appear mainstream and stand out from the crowd?

Hipster is more, much more. It goes well with terms such as indie, alternative, pacifist, ecologist, slow food, non-conformism, vintage fashion, craftsmanship, progressivism. Norman Mailer coined perhaps the most fitting expression: existentialism.

With this urban collection that illustrates colors and some symbols of the hipster culture of Williamsburg in Brooklyn, you can begin the search for your own hipster soul!

On our coast there are only a few beach rules.

- 1) Take a slow walk on the shoreline.
- 2) Read a book sluggishly.
- 3) Look for seashells and coastal creatures and leave them where they are.
- 4) Relax, rest, unwind.
- 5) Create memories.
- 6) Flip flops are mandatory.

Enjoy the vibe of this amazingly illustrated collection with a palette of sand, blue, ivory and turquoise colors, where the presence of man is perceived by the objects that make him happy but integrates harmoniously without making noise, letting the voice of the sea be the only sound of summer.

SICILIA

COLLECTION

From William Shakespeare to Gabriel García Márquez, from Plato to Truman Capote who called it most beautiful than any woman, writers of all ages fell in love with Sicily.

The Italian island defines itself a land lying outside time, where past events endure in an eternal present, a beach on which the tides of successive civilizations have heaped their treasure. Treasure made of culture, art, food, colors.

Like the yellow of lemons and the blue of Caltagirone ceramics that make up the basic palette of this collection where everything, from flower petals to prickly pears and ceramic tiles, has been hand-drawn by our artists with the aim of put on paper the scent of the Sicilian summer.

Under the Tuscan Sun

COLLECTION

Tuscany is Florence, Renaissance, paintings and frescos of artists such as Da Vinci and Botticelli, but is also one of Italy's most romantic lands. Take a walk through wildflower fields crisscrossed with vineyards, rolling hills, olive and cypress trees framing red-brick rural houses, savoring summer in the countryside that inspired Mark Twain to write "The Creator made Italy from designs by Michelangelo".

A palette of warm summer colors and beautiful watercolors of the Italian countryside will make you feel the lure of spending time under the Tuscan sun.

Everywhere one must be something, here one can simply be.

COLLECTION

In the fall of 1948, Ernest Hemingway traveled for the first time to Venice, in Italy, where he met and fell in love with Adriana Ivancich, his last muse.

A surprising, years-long relationship, during which she inspired a man 30 years her senior, who hadn't published a novel in nearly a decade, to complete The Old Man and the Sea and was the model for Renata in Across the River and into the Trees.

The graphic elements chosen by our Art Director to illustrate Hemingway's life experience, in a mix of colors and decorative details of colonial Africa, as well as giving life to a very romantic collection, answered a question: can a muse reverse roles and become a writer, with an intimate look at her soul through the magic of her own words?

What do the symbolic writer of the beat generation and a rusty pick-up truck abandoned in the desert have in common?

Dreams of freedom. Street stories and wild years. Stories of wind and lost ideals, when any other place is better and you wonder if two or four wheels are fast enough to fly away from here. Until only rust and memories remain.

Thinking of On the road by Jack Kerouac, roar and manifesto of the first generation in search of a different freedom, we have created a collection with warm and melancholy colors, perfect for male projects, where rust and corroded metal are absolute protagonists as a symbol of disillusionment, but also memory of the desire for freedom, poetry and one-way lives with just one love: live to ride, ride to live.
